

If I were King or Queen for the Day.

Queen Victoria became Queen when she was only eighteen years old.

She was a very popular Monarch because of the many changes that she made during her reign.

Imagine that you were King or Queen for the day.

What would you do during this day?

Would you try to make lots of changes to the world or would you have a fun day doing all of your favourite things?

What do you think that you would enjoy about being King or Queen?

Use the template or write a list on paper of your ideas about the different things that you would do.

Challenge

You could also try to find out:

- Who had the shortest reign in British history?
- Which monarch has reigned for the longest time?
- Who is the youngest world leader today?
